We Are Diligently Seeking Clearance With Radical Reductions.

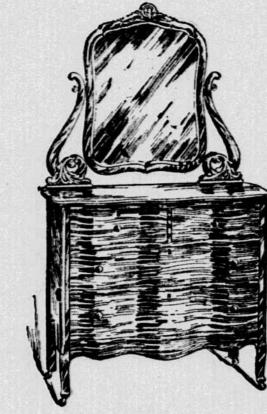

It entails no small sacrifice to accomplish the clearance of active lines. We are, perhaps, unduly set in this purpose of ours to go into the market with a clean stock-sheet, but it has been the policy of this store from its beginning to open each season with a brand-new stock, and we have inaugurated this Clearance Sale that there might be no hold-overs.

We shall make special effort THIS WEEK on Bedroom Furniture and Bedding — and you will be offered opportunities that are really extraordinary and should have your attention if you appreciate staple qualities at less than they are actually worth.

> There is no question about your Credit being good here. If it is any accommodation we shall be very pleased to open a charge account with you.

The Guaranteed Refrigerator.

You may be sure that when we pin our faith to the Refrigerators made by the Alaska Refrigerator Co. it is because we cannot find a better one on the market. With the scientific principles they have combined designs that are particularly adapted for family use, whether in the apartment or the house. In any given size of the Alaska Refrigerator Co.'s Refrigerators there is more room and less ice required for maintenance than any other make we know of. The cases are practical in construction and sightly in appearance.

We make a specialty of their four great leaders—the "Star," the "Sitka," the "Alaska" and the "Majestic."

"Mme. Diaz soothed him and then rang the bell. I answered before any of the other servants got there. I then brought a fresh piece of paper, and then his wife led the old man, trembling with mixed anger, grief and regret, back to his chair, took his right hand with the pen and guided it as he rewrote the entire resignation and signed it. No attention was paid to me and I stood watching and listening. When it was signed madame reached for it with one hand and with the other rang a bell for a messenger. She other rang a bell for a messenger. She knew that at that moment the chamber of deputies was in session and that there was a terrible turmoil demanding her husband's resignation.

Thrust Paper in Pocket.

"Diaz thrust the paper in his pocket and refused to hand it over to his wife and brushed her to one side. The original resignation drawn up by the lawyer lay on the floor, and it was afterward burned "There were tears on the face of madame as she begged Diaz to give her the resignation, or at least send it at once, so as to avert massacres and riots. She argued for more than twenty minutes, and then Diaz tore the crumpled paper from his pocket, thrust it into her hand, saying:

"There, do with it what you please,'
